

OBSERVATIONAL QUESTION

A telescope is set up in front of you. Use the telescope to answer the question below.

- a. Name the type of the telescope, giving the main technical details of it.
- b. Attach securely the solar filter to the telescope to the solar filter. Point the telescope to the sun. Once you are done, notified the examiner.
- c. Sketch the image of the sun as seen through the telescope. Include in the sketch information on the North, South, East and West direction, your name, time date and location where the sketch is made.

END OF QUESTION